

2025 NZ Master Plumber of the Year

Entry Form

Important Entry Information

This award recognises a Master Plumbers member business that can clearly demonstrate its business acumen and drive for success. The recipient will exemplify the highest levels of professionalism and service.

Entrants will be judged across five key business areas:

- Customer service
- Marketing
- Image
- Business performance
- Personnel.

Judges will pay particular attention to how the business interacts with its customers, the marketing techniques employed to promote and grow the business, its professional image, the quality and responsiveness of employees (if any), and how successfully the business has performed during the past two years. The winner will be presented with the pounamu statuette and $2,000 towards their business marketing plan or promotion of the business.

Finalists will be determined by the quality of the written submission. The awards selection panel may then interview a shortlist via video conferencing.

Criteria

- Entry is open to the owner, shareholder or director of a Master Plumbers' member business
- The applicant must be or employ a Certifying practitioner who holds current authorisation with the Plumbers, Gasfitters and Drainlayers Board
- The applicant must never have had a complaint against their business for bad workmanship upheld by the Master Plumbers Guarantee
- Applicants who are shortlisted for this award may be invited to attend an online interview with the judging panel.
